TRANSFER OF CERTAIN STATE PROPERTY FROM THE TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT TO THE STATE
ORPHANS HOME ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

CHAPTER 433

S.B. No. 2054

AN ACT

relating to the transfer of certain state property from the Texas Juvenile Justice Department to the State Orphans Home Alumni Association.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. (a) In this Act, "State Orphans Home Alumni Association" means the association of individuals organized to honor the former residents and students of Corsicana State Home in Corsicana, Texas, formerly known as the State Orphans Home.

(b) Not later than January 1, 2016, the Texas Juvenile Justice Department shall donate and transfer to the State Orphans Home Alumni Association the real property described by Subsection (f) of this section.

(c) The State Orphans Home Alumni Association may use the real property transferred under this Act only for a purpose that benefits the public interest of the state by preserving and maintaining the property as a cemetery to commemorate the former residents of the Corsicana State Home, formerly known as the State Orphans Home, who are buried there. If the State Orphans Home Alumni Association uses the property for any purpose other than a purpose described by this subsection, ownership of the property automatically transfers to the State of Texas.

(d) The Texas Juvenile Justice Department shall transfer the real property by an appropriate instrument of transfer. The instrument of transfer must:

(1) provide that:

(A) the State Orphans Home Alumni Association may use the property only for a purpose that benefits the public interest of the state by preserving and maintaining the property as a cemetery to commemorate the former residents of the Corsicana State Home, formerly known as the State Orphans Home, who are buried there; and

(B) ownership of the property will automatically transfer to the State of Texas if the State Orphans Home Alumni Association uses the property for any purpose other than a purpose described by Paragraph (A) of this subdivision; and

(2) describe the property to be transferred by metes and bounds.

(e) The General Land Office shall retain custody of the instrument of transfer after the instrument of transfer is filed for recording in the real property records of Navarro County.

(f) The real property referred to in this section is described as follows:
